

ITINERARY – ONE DAY

FOOD AND SHOPPING

MORNING

Thomastown is home to some of Melbourne's most famous food manufacturers. Choose from delicious fresh smoked ham at Bertocchi Small Goods or soft buffalo mozzarella, hot ricotta, and creamy cannoli at That's Amore Cheese. Where it is all made on site and sample some great food in their café.

Bring an esky or something to keep your food fresh and then go to lunch.

LUNCH

Farm Vigano – A short drive will bring you to this iconic eatery and wedding venue set amongst 16 acres in the heart of the Plenty Valley Gorge. Farm Vigano offers a breathtaking scenic backdrop for your dining experience. This unique property is rich in Italian heritage, food, and culture, with captivating panoramic views of lush gardens, fruit trees, and nearby bushland.

AFTERNOON

Uni Hill Bundoora – Just a short drive down the road will bring you to this well-known shopping outlet DFO, open until 6 pm. It features many popular brands, including sporting goods, fashion, kitchenware, shoes, and bedding materials. If chocolate is your thing, the Lindt Chocolate Shop is a gold mine of goodness.

DINNER

Just a short drive down the road will bring you to Westfield Plenty Valley where you will find the restaurant precinct packed with a variety of options such as Thai, Greek, Japanese, Korean BBQ, deserts, pub fare and other modern choices. This space is great for kids with outdoor play areas set in landscaped gardens and artistic murals set the tone for this great space.

For more information on things to do in the City of Whittlesea, visit: explore.whittlesea.vic.gov.au